Audiovisual Translation and the Development of Cultural Literacy in English Language Teaching

This session will introduce the Erasmus+ project AVTiA (Audiovisual Translation for Inclusion and Accessibility), which explores how audiovisual translation (AVT) can support inclusive and accessible language education. The project promotes the use of subtitling, accessibility practices, and digital tools to foster intercultural competence, digital literacy, and inclusive teaching practices in foreign language education.

Session delivered by

Dr Anca Daniela Frumuselu

Serra Húnter Associate Professor
